

NATALIE MILES

SPIRITUAL MENTOR & PSYCHIC MEDIUM

ABOUT NATALIE

Natalie Miles is a Spiritual Mentor, Psychic Medium and host of one of the top 5 spiritual podcast on iTunes “So You Think You’re Intuitive?”. However, Natalie isn’t the typical psychic medium. It’s her mission to make intuition accessible and be the “door opener” for others to connect to their intuition. Intuition is for everyone.

She believes that everyone is born intuitive, but most people have forgotten how to use their natural gifts. Natalie has been guided by Spirit to be “the door opener” and reactivate people with their intuition. But this isn’t just about reactivating your gifts to get future guidance on your life. It’s to inspire others to use their intuition so they can heal the present moment. To look at what’s holding them back, acknowledge their blocks and begin the healing process so they can live their most authentic life.

“ Natalie breaks down concepts to easily understand and gives you valuable tools/next steps so you can connect to your intuition especially on a deeper level. She’s the real deal and her channeled messages are potent, powerful and accurate. ”
